Berkeley Rep aspires to use theatre as a means to challenge, thrill, and galvanize what is best in the human spirit. The School of Theatre supports this mission through meaningful connections between audiences and our mainstage work, creative entry points for new audiences, providing tools for artists and students to harness their imaginative power, and immersive training for future theatre makers.

VACCINATION POLICY:

Berkeley Rep School of Theatre's youth and teen programming is limited to children who are up-to-date with those vaccinations recommended by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and required by California Education Code Section 48980.5, unless a medical exception applies. For children with medical exemptions, the School must be notified and a physician's written statement supporting the medical exemption must be submitted prior to participation. To view a schedule of the CDC's vaccine recommendations please see: www.cdc.gov. To view the vaccines required by California law, please see: www.legendinfo.ca.gov.

REGISTRATION POLICIES:

All registrations are processed in the order they are received. Registrations will be accepted until the class is full or until the end of the first week of class, whichever comes first. Returned checks: A $25 service charge will be attached to any check returned by the bank due to insufficient funds. Class confirmations: After your registration is processed, you will receive information confirming your spot in the class. General cancellation policy: If you cancel 24 hours or more before the first class meeting begins, we will refund tuition less a $50 processing fee per class. If you cancel within 24 hours before the first class meeting begins, we will refund tuition less a $75 processing fee. If you cancel within 24 hours after the first class meeting, we will refund half the tuition amount. And 24 hours or more after the first class meeting, no refund will be given.

Berkeley Repertory Theatre is not responsible for any lost, damaged or stolen personal belongings. Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and scene partner rehearsals on time and ready to work. Repeated non-compliance without notification may result in dismissal from class without refund. All dates, times, and programming subject to change.
